More News From ASBG:

First we would like to thank everyone who took a star off of the tree. Due to your generosity a child will have something under their tree on Christmas day. We had 54 stars on the tree this year and in three days every star had been chosen. THANKS!

Second don't forget the Millennium Ball this Saturday. It's going to be an evening full of excitement and fun, and all for only $1 per person, so don't miss it. Now get ready to put on those fancy duds and your most comfortable dancing shoes and meet us there. Don't forget gals, you don't have to be too shy to ask someone to go with you, some times they want to go but are afraid to ask, so you ask them.

This dance is open to everyone, so don't forget to spread the good news. Invite a friend from out of town, or your favorite cousin, and come enjoy a night of fun with everyone at Clatsop Community College, for four hours of entertainment from 8:00 pm through 12:00 pm, Dec. 4, 1999. See you there.

Any Ideas?

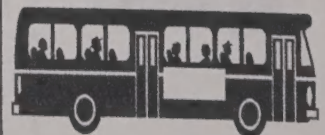

If you have any ideas for campus activities please take the time to visit the ASBG office and discuss them.

If you have a problem, come in to the ASBG office and speak to one of it's officers to see if there is something we can do to help.

Updated Bus Transportation Info:

The Route 15 bus (Warrenton) will adjust the time of departure from the College for two of their College scheduled runs. The Route 15 bus that arrives at CCC at 9:45 am will depart at 9:56 am, and the afternoon Route 15 bus will arrive at CCC at 2:47 pm and depart at 2:56 pm. This schedule was adjusted to help accommodate students who have been unable to catch these particular busses after class.

The Poet's Corner

This weeks poem is by Jenn Davids

Somewhere There's an Angel

Somewhere there's an angel,
Just waiting in the wings for you.

Keeping a loving lookout
and helping to see you through.
You'll have the blessings of an angel
behind the scenes of your days,
there to catch any tears that fall
and here for you always.

The sweetest reassurance
as the year ahead unfolds
is to know in your heart
that you're never alone.

And it's such a comfort to know...

that your smiles will always shine bright in your life,
Along with the blessing
of beautiful things.

Because somewhere you have an angel...

Just waiting in the wings.

If you would like to see your poetry here.

Arts On Stage Presents

The performance of "Talking With" was a huge success. It starred eleven interesting women, with eleven monologs. So lets give a big hand to everyone for their hard work.

Another don't miss performance is the "Cannon Beach Chorus—On The Way To Carnegie Hall". It will be running on Saturday, December 18, 1999 at 7:30 pm. So if you would like to hear the closest thing next to Angels singing don't miss this performance.

Tickets for these performances are available in advance at the CCC Library or by calling the director Karen Bain at Arts on Stage box office phone number at 338-2443, as well as at the Performing Arts Center box office one hour prior to the performance.

A Touch Of Humor:

Fun Things To Do In An Elevator:

1. Whistle the first seven notes of "It's a Small World" incessantly.
2. Say "Ding" at each floor.
3. Wear a puppet on your hand and talk to the other passengers "through" it.
4. When at least 8 passengers have boarded and doors have closed moan, "Not now, damn motion sickness"
5. Greet everyone getting on the elevator with a handshake and ask them to call you Admiral.
6. Offer name tags to every person getting on the elevator, and wear yours upside down.
7. Walk on with a cooler that says "Human Head" on the side.
8. If anyone brushes against you, recoil and holler "Bad Touch".
9. Draw a little square with chalk on the elevator floor, then tell people not to stand there that it's your "Personal Space".
10. Face the wall when other passengers are boarding.
